

ADVERTISEMENT

Ever miss something said in class?

Ever wonder if your notes are correct?

Try PerfectNotes software for free.

www.PerfectNotes.com

No email address or charge card required.

Towns in Barnegat Bay Watershed

ACROSS

- 1 unlawful to sell alcohol here
- 5 home of Old Barney

- 9 Good Luck Point
- 11 Unami word meaning "sand place"
- 13 beginning of the Barnegat Branch Railroad
- 17 once called "Seheyichbi" land bordering the ocean
- 19 northern most town of Barnegat Island (Also home of Barnegat Bay Mermaid)
- 20 encompasses West Creek
- 21 home of the only winery in Ocean County
- 23 known for gull eggs found there
- 24 "ford" by a "staithe" or "landing place"
- 26 named after a place in England
- 27 little town on the south shore of the Toms River
- 28 incorporated in 1927
- 31 once called "Harvest Quarters"
- 32 birthplace of an MLB player who played on no less than 6 teams
- 35 vacation spot for men such as Cleveland, Gould, Twain, and Rockefeller
- 36 fills their drinking water reservoir from the Metedeconk River
- 37 one of NJs 21 "donut towns" (Hint: it is not the kind you eat)

DOWN

- 2 home of a Bon Jovi music video
- 3 divided into 4 discontiguous land areas
- 4 grounds of one of biggest battles for the Revolutionary War
- 6 filming location for "Greetings from the Shore"
- 7 river of its namesake was once called Goose Creek
- 8 inlet of the breakers
- 10 once home of the Royal Pines Hotel frequented by Al Capone
- 12 head of the Bay
- 14 named after a wrecked ship in 1817
- 15 split in half by the canal at the head of the ICW
- 16 once known as Clamtown and a port of entry for the US in the 1700's
- 18 home to the first big boarding hotel at the Jersey Shore
- 22 contained the oldest operating commercial nuclear power plant until 2018
- 25 first of NJ shark attacks that lead to the film "Jaws"
- 29 part of Berkeley Township sectioned off as a summer colony
- 30 home of the company that once was the pioneer of wireless long distance communication
- 33 everyone calls it Waretown
- 34 until 2018 home of the tallest roller coaster in the world